

Notice of Insurance Information Practices

Personal information about you, including information from a credit or other investigative report, may be collected from persons other than you in connection with offers for insurance coverage and subsequent amendments and renewals. Such information as well as other personal and privileged information collected by us or our agents may in certain circumstances be disclosed to third parties without your authorization. Credit scoring information may be used to help determine either your eligibility for insurance or the premium you will be charged. A decision to request consumer reports will not be made based on race, color, religion, marital status, age, gender, income, national origin or place of residence of an applicant or insured. We may use a third party in connection with the development of your score. You have the right to review your personal information in our files and can request corrections of any inaccuracies. You may contact the consumer report agency(s) shown below within 60 days of this notice to obtain a free copy of your consumer report and to dispute the accuracy or completeness of any report.
